Regarding Probate Judge

IMPORTANT---READ THIS!

Within the last three days this proposition has been put up to the Probate Judge in Washington District:

A man by will left a certain amount of money in trust to a Church Society, payable at the rate of one hundred dollars a year as long as the Church held meetings and until the amount was exhausted. The Probate Court decreed the property accordingly. After several years the Church Society dissolved and the Church building was sold. There is now, therefore, no trustee under that provision in the will.

The Probate Court must decide whether it has jurisdiction in the matter; and if so what the procedure shall be.

THE ANSWER TO THIS QUESTION IS NOT LAID DOWN IN THE STATUTES. It is strictly a law question. On its proper decision will depend whether the residuary legatees must spend money in litigation to straighten the matter out.

Similar questions are continually arising in this Probate Court.

YOUR OWN ESTATE, Mr. and Mrs. Voter, MAY at any time come before this Court for settlement.

Consider well whether you want it settled by a trained experienced, competent lawyer.

Put aside the campaign hand-shake, the cigars, the smile and the gum, and vote for a COMPETENT MAN in the prime of life, able to perform the duties of this highly important and exacting office.

WISHART

The People's Choice for County Senator

Of the six candidates for Senator, Mr. Wishart is the sole candidate with recent legislative experience. He was, without doubt, one of the leaders in the last House as the able Representative of the City of Barre. His record and standing as a legislator received the unqualified approval of the entire House irrespective of Party lines. He is a convincing speaker and is an ardent supporter of all legislation for the good of Vermont.

The following recent editorial from the Burlington Free Press shows his standing and ability, as viewed by keen students of political affairs.
